All Things New!
Revelation 21:5
Rev. Paul C. Hemenway

Revelation 21:5: *And he who was seated on the throne said, “Behold, I am making all things new.”
Also he said, “Write this down,
for these words are trustworthy and true.”*

And God said _____.
These are words of action and performance, not “fridge buzz.”

In Christ all things are changed and made _____.

Our past looks _____ now.

Our future is _____.

And now we can live life _____ in a completely new way!

Bo Giertz: “Christians are supposed to live in, work in, and make contributions to this world while thinking in a completely different way with a completely different set of values. It isn’t easy at all.”

You can trust _____.

Nothing else can do for you what _____ can and does!

Let Him make you _____ today!

A Warm Welcome to our Visitors and Members!

- We would like to know who our visitors are, please complete a visitor card from the pew rack and pass it to the center aisle for collection by the ushers.
- Personal Assistive Listening Devices for persons with hearing problems are available from an usher.
- The offering is an act of worship for members and friends of Trinity, moved by God's love, to support this ministry. Visitors should not feel obligated to participate. We want you to feel welcome and we truly wish to serve you.
- If at any time during the service it becomes difficult for you to stand, by all means take a seat, even if others are standing. God knows our strengths and He understands our weaknesses and frailties, too. God bless you!

Our Practice in Participating in the Lord's Supper

We're glad you are here worshipping with us! Today we will be celebrating Holy Communion. According to Christ and Holy Scripture, in this gift we receive the true body and blood of Jesus for the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:26-28, Luke 22:14-20, I Corinthians 10:16-21, I Corinthians 11:23-26). Through this blessing, we are also strengthened to live in faithfulness to Christ, lead more Godly lives and have a deeper love for one another. Those communing are publicly professing that they believe these things to be true and are also giving witness that they are in agreement with the teaching of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

St. Paul tells us that those who take Communion without proper instruction take it to their great harm (I Corinthians 11:29). We don't want that for anyone; therefore, we ask that anyone holding a different Christian confession or belief about the Lord's Supper refrain from Communion. If you are not Communing with us today, we encourage you to come forward with those in your aisle to receive a blessing. Simply indicate your presence by crossing your hands on the rail (or in front of your body for Saturday night worshippers). If you have questions about our Communion policy or our beliefs please feel free to speak to one of the pastors after the service or indicate on an attendance card that you would like to be contacted. May God bless us all as we worship Him in His house today!

*Upon request, we offer a gluten free communion wafer. Please ask an usher for assistance.

God calms us as His because He created us, He formed us, and He redeemed us. He called us. We are His.
