“One Family, Many Faces”

Galatians 3:23-4:7

Rev. Paul C. Hemenway

God loves _____ when it is lived out according to His Word and plan.

In the world so many times you have to _____ to the particular group you are around to get ahead. God's plan is different.

The blood of Christ is so powerful and far reaching that it _____ all believers of all time!

In Revelation John sees a vision of the afterlife. He takes special care to note the diversity between the people there. It's SO diverse, in fact, that this group praising God is not even made up entirely of _____!

In the diversity of people, we get to see a _____ of heaven!

"Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience" Colossians 3:12.

Through adoption we have been brought into God's _____. We may have different faces, but we are all part of the same family!

In God's family we are all the same in Christ, yet we are all _____. Your story is yours. My story is mine. And they are VERY different stories with different experiences. The enemy wants to use our differences to cause division and isolation and despair. God wants to use our differences to bring us _____!

Life is too short to _____ anyone else but Jesus Christ.

What would it take for me to love God's plan and put into _____ in my life? Will I love my brother or sister even when they are different from me? "By this the children of God are distinguished from the children of the devil: Anyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is anyone who does not love his brother." 1 John 3:10.

You are the saved and forgiven and _____ children of God! Just as He has loved you through His Son, let's love and value one another!

A Warm Welcome to our Visitors and Members!

- We would like to know who our visitors are, please complete a visitor card from the pew rack and pass it to the center aisle for collection by the ushers.
- Personal Assistive Listening Devices for persons with hearing problems are available from an usher.
- The offering is an act of worship for members and friends of Trinity, moved by God's love, to support this ministry. Visitors should not feel obligated to participate. We want you to feel welcome and we truly wish to serve you.
- If at any time during the service it becomes difficult for you to stand, by all means take a seat, even if others are standing. God knows our strengths and He understands our weaknesses and frailties, too. God bless you!

Our Practice in Participating in the Lord's Supper

We're glad you are here worshipping with us! Today we will be celebrating Holy Communion. According to Christ and Holy Scripture, in this gift we receive the true body and blood of Jesus for the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:26-28, Luke 22:14-20, I Corinthians 10:16-21, I Corinthians 11:23-26). Through this blessing, we are also strengthened to live in faithfulness to Christ, lead more Godly lives and have a deeper love for one another. Those communing are publicly professing that they believe these things to be true and are also giving witness that they are in agreement with the teaching of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

St. Paul tells us that those who take Communion without proper instruction take it to their great harm (I Corinthians 11:29). We don't want that for anyone; therefore, we ask that anyone holding a different Christian confession or belief about the Lord's Supper refrain from Communion. If you are not Communing with us today, we encourage you to come forward with those in your aisle to receive a blessing. Simply indicate your presence by crossing your hands on the rail (or in front of your body for Saturday night worshipers). If you have questions about our Communion policy or our beliefs please feel free to speak to one of the pastors after the service or indicate on an attendance card that you would like to be contacted. May God bless us all as we worship Him in His house today!

*Upon request, we offer a gluten free communion wafer. Please ask an usher for assistance.

God's stewards live with an awareness of the present and the future, of time and eternity. God's stewards live intentionally in the light of the Lord's eternal purpose while being firmly omitted to His rule in the here and now.
