“No-Holds Barred Love and What You Do With It”

Luke 10:25-37
Rev. Paul C. Hemenway

What must I do to inherit eternal life? It’s the _____ way to ask the question.

Jesus technically didn’t answer the question asked, He answered the question that needed to be answered. “Searching for a neat, tidy and precise doctrinal formulation for the concept of neighbor, the smart-aleck lawyer was forgetting to _____ one.”

You can’t do anything to earn your salvation! Only God can save you and that salvation is found in the cross of Jesus Christ. Why did He do that? Because of His no holds barred _____ for you!

And we are called to live out and show the love we’ve received to our neighbor. Who is your neighbor? _____! All people are created in the image of God and they are your neighbors. Love them.

“Loving God with everything we’ve got prompts and manufactures loving our neighbor as ourselves. We can be a _____ to others only because Christ was first a neighbor to us.”

The Good Samaritan’s compassion is manifested through compassionate _____.

This story reveals three basic attitudes toward human need or human suffering:
 1- The attitude of the robbers: What’s _____ is mine and I’m going to get it.
 2- The attitude of the Priest and Levite: What’s _____ is mine and I’m going to keep it.
 3- The attitude of the Samaritan: What’s mine is _____ and I’m going to give it.

The best attitude any of us can have is: What’s mine belongs to _____ and I’m going to share His stuff with my neighbor.

God give us the strength and spirit to live lives of no holds barred _____ toward our neighbors!

A Warm Welcome to our Visitors and Members!

- We would like to know who our visitors are, please complete a visitor card from the pew rack and pass it to the center aisle for collection by the ushers.
- Personal Assistive Listening Devices for persons with hearing problems are available from an usher.
- The offering is an act of worship for members and friends of Trinity, moved by God's love, to support this ministry. Visitors should not feel obligated to participate. We want you to feel welcome and we truly wish to serve you.
- If at any time during the service it becomes difficult for you to stand, by all means take a seat, even if others are standing. God knows our strengths and He understands our weaknesses and frailties, too. God bless you!

Our Practice in Participating in the Lord's Supper

We're glad you are here worshipping with us! Today we will be celebrating Holy Communion. According to Christ and Holy Scripture, in this gift we receive the true body and blood of Jesus for the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:26-28, Luke 22:14-20, I Corinthians 10:16-21, I Corinthians 11:23-26). Through this blessing, we are also strengthened to live in faithfulness to Christ, lead more Godly lives and have a deeper love for one another. Those communing are publicly professing that they believe these things to be true and are also giving witness that they are in agreement with the teaching of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

St. Paul tells us that those who take Communion without proper instruction take it to their great harm (I Corinthians 11:29). We don't want that for anyone; therefore, we ask that anyone holding a different Christian confession or belief about the Lord's Supper refrain from Communion. If you are not Communing with us today, we encourage you to come forward with those in your aisle to receive a blessing. Simply indicate your presence by crossing your hands on the rail (or in front of your body for Saturday night worshipers). If you have questions about our Communion policy or our beliefs please feel free to speak to one of the pastors after the service or indicate on an attendance card that you would like to be contacted. May God bless us all as we worship Him in His house today!

*Upon request, we offer a gluten free communion wafer. Please ask an usher for assistance.

We discern God's will in our lives by studying and learning from His Word.
