SUNDAY SCHOOL AND WEEKLY BIBLE STUDIES

THIS WEEK IN SUNDAY SCHOOL: Today in Sunday School students study the story, "Jesus Heals Jairus's Daughter." Just as Jesus by word and touch raised the dead girl to life, so by His Word and Sacraments, He kills and buries death and raises us to eternal life. Questions for discussion include, "How did Jesus heal this little girl?" "How does Jesus heal us from the sickness of sin?"

SUNDAY MORNING HIGH SCHOOL BIBLE CLASS: What's YOUR Worldview, taught by Youth Director Cindy Good in the Church Library.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT BIBLE CLASSES:

●Women's Bible Study: Join us for Women's bible study on Sunday mornings. Women of all ages are welcome to participate in the discussion! We will be using He Restores My Soul: Writings on Cross and Comfort edited by Katie Schuermann (Sherman, IL). There are signed copies available for purchase for $15 from either Amy Holmes or Karen Hemenway. This study will show us how to find Christ in dire situations many women find themselves in on a daily basis. Topics will include miscarriage, abortion, same sex attraction, terminal illness, and depression. We will equip ourselves with the tools needed to show the grace of Christ where it is needed most. Class is led by Amy Holmes and Karen Hemenway and meets in the Extended Care Room.

●Lord's Supper Bible Study: Last winter's Lord's Supper Bible Study continues in the Eighth Grade Classroom led by Pastor Holmes.

●Conquering the Sins We Love: Giving into temptation isn't inevitable. We don't have to lose the fight. In fact, we can win if we understand the root of the problem and what Christians have done from the beginning to beat them. In this class, we will study the parts of God's Word that reveal the time-tested methods for getting victory over sin. The sins we will discuss are not what most would consider to be the "biggies," like infidelity or theft. Instead, we will focus on the everyday temptations that all of us fall prey to, including pride, desire, anxiety, procrastination, media, and laziness. This class will be led by Pastor Hemenway in the Parish Hall.

TUESDAY MORNING LADIES BIBLE STUDY will meet on May 14 at the home of Cathy Von De Bur, 65 Cinnamon Creek. Please call 487.7846 for directions. We will meet on May 21 at the home of Chris Milbrandt, 1201 S. Walnut. We will meet at Morning Star Café on May 28 for our year-end luncheon. For more information, contact Mary Denham at 546.8387.

LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF ANNOUNCEMENTS

LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF NEEDS YOUR HELP: Families in the Middle East need food, shelter - and YOU. The battle to destroy ISIS in Mosul, Iraq is over. But for the people who survive its reign of violence and terror, now the hard work of recovery begins. More than 70 percent of the city was destroyed – homes, hospitals, schools all reduced to rubble. And then there are the scars you cannot see. Horrific scenes of violence still haunt the men, women and children who are now working so hard to move forward, toward a peaceful future. You can help support three LWR-operated community centers in West Mosul. They are named Ana-fi-Aman, Arabic for "I am safe." They provide resources, job training for adults, and trauma counseling for children and teens. Help us reach even more families with healing hope. There's still so much more work to do in Mosul. Your gift today will truly shape the future of the families living here, working to rebuild their lives and futures.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY | FOURTH SUNDAY IN EASTER

THE SHEPHERD IMAGE: From the walls of the catacombs to the stained glass of modern churches, the picture of Christ as our Good Shepherd is one of the most popular and well-loved images of the Savior. He is often depicted with a lamb draping His shoulders and sheep standing at His feet. We look at those pictures and instinctively know: That's our Jesus and that's us!

The popularity of the image is not surprising. After all, our Lord identified Himself that way: "I am the Good Shepherd; the Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep" (John 10:11). For centuries in the early Church, it was customary for catechumens (adults preparing for Baptism) to learn and to recite not only the Lord's Prayer and the Creed, but also Psalms 23. They all knew that when they said "The Lord is my Shepherd" they were talking about the Lord Jesus. When the Lutheran Confessions identify the Church, they often use Shepherd shorthand, for example, "The holy believers and lambs who hear the voice of their Shepherd" (Smalcald Articles, Part III:XII:2). And it is no wonder, given St. Peter's words (1 Peter 5:1-4) about Christ being the Chief Shepherd.

The Church often calls those who are called to preach His Gospel and administer His sacraments in His stead "pastors"—which is Latin for shepherds. In some Christian traditions, certain pastors even carry a crozier—a shepherd's staff. The image of the Shepherd is particularly loved at the time of death. We confess that Jesus is the Shepherd who wrangled with the wolf—death—and came out the victor! He knows how to guide His people safely through that dark valley and bring them out to the high pasturelands of heaven. Under His guiding hand, His people "fear no ill"—they know that their Good Shepherd is with them with His rod to ward off the evil spirits and His staff to snatch us back if we start to wander. So even in urban settings where folks have not seen a sheep in years, the image of our Lord as the great Good Shepherd continues to speak to the hearts of Christ's people.
